

2007-08
FACULTY LECTURE SERIES

Monday, October 22

Nathalie Anderson, Professor of English Literature
“Secret Heart: a poetry reading”

Monday, November 5

Alan Baker, Assistant Professor of Philosophy
“Experimental Mathematics, Armchair Physics”

Tuesday, November 27

Julie Hagelin, Assistant Professor of Biology
Title TBA

Monday, December 3

George Lakey, Senior Associate, Lang Center for Social and Civic Responsibility
“The Norwegian model of economic democracy: any applications for the U.S.?”

Wednesday, January 30

Stephen Bensch, Professor of History
“Turning Away from the Crusades: Christians and Muslims in the medieval Maghrib”

Wednesday, February 20

Pieter Judson, Professor of History
“Was Austria-Hungary an Empire (and why does it matter)?”

Thursday, February 28

Keren, Distinguished Visiting Cornell Professor of Linguistics
“Aboriginal languages of Canada: Past, Present, Future?”

Monday, March 3

Thomas Dee, Associate Professor of Economics
“Non-cognitive skills and the class-size debate”

Thursday, March 27

Rosaria Munson, Professor of Classics
“Who are Herodotus’ Persians?”

Tuesday, April 8

Farha Ghannam, Associate Professor of Anthropology
“The Life and Death of an Egyptian Man:
Reflections on the Meaning of ‘Good Endings’ in Cairo”

Wednesday, April 23

Tyrene White, Associate Professor of Political Science
“Where You’d Least Expect it:
Faith-Based Initiatives and the Expansion of Civic Space in China”