

Occasional Papers

E. Raymond Wilson

Volume I

- I. Christmas Letters Series H
Raymond and Miriam, 1932 - 1965 (1945 missing)
Raymond and Lee, 1966 - 1971
Kent Wilson, 1958 - 1966
- II. Tributes to Miriam D. Wilson, 1965 - Series G
- III. If Flowers Behaved Like Human Beings
- |      |      |      |      |      |
|------|------|------|------|------|
| 1937 | 1956 | 1963 | 1967 | 1971 |
| 1948 | 1960 | 1965 | 1969 |      |
- IV. Poetry, 1921, 1969
- |                    |                               |
|--------------------|-------------------------------|
| January 21, 1921   | Friends or Only Acquaintances |
| January 26, 1921   | To Ether                      |
| No date            | Hair                          |
| " "                | Campus-itis                   |
| 1922               | To Annabel                    |
| September 26, 1926 | IF for the Landlubber         |
| 1926               | A Landlubber's Lament         |
| November 2, 1926   | On a Train from Nikko         |
| May 3, 1927        | An Ocean Prayer               |
| September, 1927    | The Pioneer's Song - Hokkaido |
| June 31, 1939      | On Leaving Dunecrest          |
| July 4, 1930       | Windows to My Soul            |
|                    | 1. In an English Garden       |
| July 4, 1930       | 2. Words are Weeds            |
| August, 1930       | 3. Your Pain I Share          |
| July, 1930         | 4. Cathedrals Leave Me Cold   |
| December 18, 1969  | To Chuck and Eleanor Harker   |
|                    | · on Leaving the FCNL         |
- V. The Daily Dribble, 1921-1923. One sentence quotations
- VI. Retreat at Pawling, New York, August 30 - September 15, 1924

VII. Lydia C. Roberts Fellowship, Columbia University, 1923 - 1925

VIII. The Japanese Brotherhood Scholarship, 1926

IX. The Decade Between 1921 and the end of 1930

Probably 1921	The Relative Place of the Big Packers in the Meat Packing Industry
1924	Field Work Report, 1923 - 24, Teachers College, Columbia University
Probably 1925	What Shall We Do with the Student Volunteer Movement? The Student Volunteer Movement Bulletin
Probably 1925	What Should Be the Attitude of the Foreign Missionary Enterprise on the Further Expansion of Agricultural Schools?
July 10, 1925	A Challenge to Youth Today. Talk given before the District Convention of the Country Sabbath School Association, Morning Sun, Iowa
April 22, 1929 or 1930	Training for Peace, KDKA, Pittsburg
1928	Putting Together the Picture of War
1930	Military Training in Pennsylvania
1930	Brochure on ERW, Committee on Militarism in Education
January 1930	There is No East Nor West, The Student Volunteer Movement Bulletin, January, 1930