Train:

Take the Media Local train. Get off at 49th street stop. After you get off the train cross back over the tracks towards the plexiglass shelter. Go up to the street. That is the corner of 49th and Chester. Go down one block to 48th street and turn left. Stay on 48th street and cross Baltimore Avenue. Keep going down 48th street. You will pass a Thriftway and Rite Aid. After these stores will be Spruce Street. Two more blocks past Spruce on 48th Street is Walnut Street. Turn right on Walnut and the school entrance is one-half way down the block. There is a blue sign over the entrance to the school. Go up a steep flight of stairs and sign in at the desk as you enter the main hall of the school.

Car:

From College Avenue, take a left on 320. Go to the Baltimore Pike (mall directly ahead). Turn right on Baltimore Pike. Go several miles on Baltimore Pike. Numbered streets will begin when you cross into Philadelphia. Go to 47th street and turn left. Go several blocks until you come to Walnut Street. School is on the corner of Walnut Street and 47th Street. If 47th street in one way, the wrong way, go to 46th street and then turn left on Walnut, which is one way going uptown.
