Every three years average kWh use increased by 100,000 kWh per month peaking in the year 2005. Since that peak, annual kWh has dropped 21% in spite of the addition of 327,000 gross square feet of buildings and the additional equipment that supports them since the year 2000. The addition of a 600 ton electric chiller has also been of minimal impact.