Latin American Studies
Study Abroad Advising Form

Please drop off completed form to the Programs Office: Trotter 107, after obtaining LAS Coordinator’s signature.

1. Latin American Studies minor/special major are required to spend a minimum of one semester abroad in a program approved by the Latin American Studies Program. For a list of approved programs, go to: http://www.swarthmore.edu/x21718.xml

2. In order to apply study abroad courses towards a Latin American Studies minor/special major, these courses must have a Latin American focus.

3. Study abroad coursework must be pursued in Spanish or Portuguese.

4. If the course pertains to a specific discipline (e.g. Dance, History, Sociology and Anthropology, Environmental Studies, etc.), you must obtain pre-approval from the appropriate department/program. Upon returning to Swarthmore, and receiving credit approval from the appropriate department, the student is responsible for notifying LAS so that the course(s) may be applied to the LAS minor/special major.

5. See the Interdisciplinary Transfer Credit Application form for criteria and procedures regarding LAS interdisciplinary credit, including internships.

6. LAS minors/special majors can transfer 2 courses taken abroad, with pre-approval of the program coordinator, toward a Latin American Studies program.

7. Spanish language courses are excluded, and do not count toward a LAS minor/special major. Students are encouraged to take courses that do not duplicate those offered at Swarthmore.

8. LAS will not accept vocational-technical courses to fulfill the program academic requirements.

9. A copy of your Pre-Estimation of Study Abroad Credit Application must be attached to this form.
