Computer Science Laboratory Lecturer

The Department of Computer Science is currently accepting applications for a Lab Lecturer. The Lab Lecturer position is full time during the academic year (Fall and Spring semesters) with summers off. The start date is January 11, 2016.

Swarthmore College has a strong institutional commitment to excellence through diversity and in its educational program and employment practices. The College actively seeks and welcomes applications from candidates with exceptional qualifications, particularly those with demonstrated commitments to a more inclusive society and world.

Swarthmore College is a small, selective, liberal arts college located 10 miles outside of Philadelphia. The Computer Science Department offers majors and minors at the undergraduate level.

The Lab Lecturer position is an Instructional Staff position at the college. The responsibilities of the position include, but are not limited to: teaching lab sections of the introductory courses in the Computer Science Department; working with faculty to develop lab assignments for the introductory courses; creating lab assignment write-ups and documentation on tools used in introductory labs; supporting faculty in creating and setting up lab code examples, documentation, and software tools for lab work; lab grading and coordinating student graders; and holding regular office hours and helping students in the lab during open lab hours. More information about the Computer Science Department can be found on our website at www.cs.swarthmore.edu.

A master’s degree or Ph.D. in computer science or a related field with extensive computer science background is required. Prior teaching experience at the college level is preferred.

Applications should include a vita, teaching statement, and two letters of reference that speak to the candidate’s teaching ability.

Applications are being accepted online at https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/6465. We will begin reviewing applications on November 9. Applications will continue to be accepted until the position is filled.
