Visiting Assistant Professor of Art History

The Department of Art at Swarthmore College seeks a Visiting Assistant Professor of Art History specializing in the arts of Europe between 1300 and 1700, with strong research and teaching interests in cross-cultural encounters and exchanges between Europe and the Americas, Africa, or the Islamic world.

This is a one-year full-time appointment (5 courses) with very competitive salary and benefits. Start date is Fall 2016.

Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in Art History or a closely related field. Outstanding candidates who are in the final stages of dissertation writing (ABD) will be considered.

Preferred Qualifications: One or more years of prior teaching experience.

Applications are to be submitted at https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/7240

Please include in the application:

- Letter of application addressing research interests, teaching experience, and teaching philosophy
- Curriculum Vitae
- Writing sample
- 3 letters of reference

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Preliminary interviews with selected candidates will be conducted via Skype in early May.

Swarthmore College is a highly selective liberal arts college located in the suburbs of Philadelphia; its mission combines academic rigor with social responsibility. Swarthmore has a strong institutional commitment to excellence through diversity in its educational program and employment practices and actively seeks and welcomes applications from candidates with exceptional qualifications, particularly those with demonstrable commitments to a more inclusive society and world.