UPENN REGISTRATION STARTS FOR SWARTHMORE STUDENTS: Monday, November 30, 2015
SWARTHMORE’S UPENN REGISTRATION SHEET DUE DEADLINE: Friday, January 22, 2015
UPENN’S CLASSES BEGIN: Wednesday, January 13, 2016
UPENN’S CLASSES END: Wednesday, April 27, 2016
FINAL EXAMS: May 2 – 10, 2016. Finals dates are non-negotiable -- if you can't make them work, don't take the class.

Step 1. Swarthmore students wishing to take a class at The University of Pennsylvania must review UPENN's Quaker Consortium policies and procedures at: www.sas.upenn.edu/lps/system/files/2015-2016+Quaker+Consortium+Student+Guide_1.pdf

UPENN allows two courses per semester Swarthmore only allows one, course number 599 or below. Students are not permitted to use the following Penn Resources: Careers Services, PennLink Recruiting System, Student Employment, Student Financial Services, and Student Health Service. Violation of this policy could result in termination of current registration at UPENN and restriction from further participation in the exchange.

Step 2. Complete the reverse side of this form and a UPENN Quaker Consortium Reciprocal Registration Form found on line 8 of their instructions page: http://www.sas.upenn.edu/lps/reciprocal/fall_spring Submit them both together to the Swarthmore College Registrar's Office.

Step 3. You will get an email from UPENN on the status of your registration; you must meticulously follow all of the instructions in that email, which sometimes contains many steps for you to do. Follow all the instructions in order to be fully registered for credit, including the Student Guide instructions for your PennCard and PennKey setup.

Both registration procedures are required to earn credit.

To drop or change the status in a course from the University of Pennsylvania, you must notify the Registrar's Office at Swarthmore College.

Caution: A UPENN Incomplete grade must be completed within the first 4 weeks of the next semester or the grade will automatically be converted to a grade of ‘NC’.

UPENN does not permit Swarthmore students to register for any courses at the graduate or professional levels (course numbers 600 and above). Furthermore, Swarthmore students are not permitted to audit courses at UPENN. UPENN's College of Liberal and Professional Studies (LPS) can deny any proposed course a Swarthmore student wants to take. Swarthmore always respects the College of Liberal and Professional Studies Office’s decisions as gatekeeper of UPENN courses. Swarthmore College limits registration to one course a semester.

Our application form requires that you obtain approval from both your faculty advisor and the Swarthmore department under whose purview the course falls. Swarthmore registration is based on the course being one that is not available at Swarthmore, is relevant to the student's overall educational plan, and has been approved by the appropriate department here.

When differences occur between their regulations or calendar and ours, Swarthmore students are limited by the stricter rule, either UPENN's or Swarthmore's. Swarthmore students who take courses at UPENN do so under the rules concerning papers, examinations, grading, deadlines for completed work, and so on, that pertain THERE.

Full time enrollment at Swarthmore is required by the end of Swarthmore’s add/drop period regardless of UPENN’s calendar or approvals or lack thereof.

Housing: If you are planning to register for a UPENN course for the Spring 2015, you need to be in contact with Rachel Head regarding the start date for those courses. Early housing will only be considered if UPENN’s LPS has contacted the Swarthmore College Registrar’s office with enrollment verification.

Travel Funding: is limited to reimbursement for approved expenses, and the ‘per student’ cap is the train fare to and from Philadelphia for only the class for which enrolled. There is no reimbursement for library usage or practices. If you drive, you will only be reimbursed up to the cost of the round trip train fare. Travel reimbursement is managed by the Dean’s Office (Parrish 140, email: slewis2@swarthmore.edu). Reimbursements are done twice a semester. The Dean’s office will email you with details after our add/drop period. NO reimbursements for travel will be made without a receipt for each trip. Please print your name and ID# on a separate piece of paper and include it with your receipts. If you expect to go to UPENN more than three (3) times a week, before you purchase monthly or multiple tickets please confer with Parrish 140.
