All withdrawals need to be approved by your academic advisor. If your approved program for this semester is fewer than four credits, indicate your plan to maintain satisfactory progress for your class. Satisfactory progress is defined as follows: a rising sophomore must have completed 6-8 credits; a rising junior must have 14-16 credits and have applied for a major; and a rising senior must have 22-24 credits and have a major. At no time are programs of fewer than three credits per semester permitted.

Students, if this withdrawal puts you below 4 credits for this semester, please briefly explain the reason for going below 4 credits, and your plan to make up the credits:
