Puentes Hacia el Futuro
Early Childhood Education Program Coordinator

Description
We seek a highly motivated student in the fields of education, psychology, and/or human development to implement our newest education initiative for children 3-5 years of age. The coordinator will be part of a pilot program in Summer 2016 and, ideally, to continue through the 2016 school year. The Early Childhood Education Coordinator position provides any student an unparalleled opportunity to work and learn at both the intersection of research, action, and social justice and at the cutting edge of urban education. The Coordinator will engage with issues of education and equality in a community-based, multilingual, and transnational context, preparing them as a future leader and expert in their field.

Early Childhood Education at Puentes de Salud
The purpose of this position is to lead our pilot program in Early Childhood Education in Summer 2016. This program will be part of Puentes de Salud’s education initiative, Puentes Hacia el Futuro. Puentes de Salud serves the rapidly growing Latino immigrant community of South Philadelphia and enhances community wellness through an integrated approach to health, education, and empowerment. Puentes Hacia el Futuro is predicated upon the well-evidenced fact that education is inextricably tied to the health of individuals and communities. Our mission is to improve the educational achievement of children in our immigrant community to improve long-term health outcomes.

Requirements
This internship is available to a graduate student. We will consider undergraduate students with significant relevant experience and qualifications. We are seeking a highly motivated, independent person with excellent interpersonal skills that is passionate about supporting the education, health, and wellness of Latino children. Intermediate/Advanced level of Spanish is required.

Hours: 10-12 hours per week with more hours possible if required by sending department or desired by student.

Please send your resume to Alexandra Wolkoff at alexandra.puentes.tutor@gmail.com to indicate your interest.
