Assistant Professor of Applied Econometrics

The Department of Economics at Swarthmore College seeks to fill a tenure-track position in applied econometrics at the assistant or associate professor level beginning in Fall 2016. Candidates should be committed to excellence in both teaching and research. Successful candidates will be expected to establish an active research program and to teach in both classroom and honors seminar settings. Applications in all areas of empirical econometrics are welcome.

Applications should include a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendation, a teaching statement, and one research paper. Applications should be submitted to https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/6287 by November 16, 2015. Swarthmore College is a highly selective liberal arts college, located in the suburbs of Philadelphia, whose mission combines academic rigor with social responsibility. Swarthmore has a strong institutional commitment to inclusive excellence through diversity in its educational program and employment practices. The College actively seeks and welcomes applications from candidates with exceptional qualifications, particularly those with demonstrable commitments to a more inclusive society and world.
