Mr. Gray

15 New Broad Street, Jan. 20 1849

Dear Lacan,

The gentleman who will present you this, is one whom I can most cordially commend to your kind attentions and regard. He is Mr. Gray, from Dublin, a member of the Society of Friends. If you can show him any attentions, or oblige him in any way, you will confer a favour upon me also. Perhaps you might take him with you to Oswald Murray's, some evening. I have just returned from a tour in the Provinces, and will write you at length ere long.

Affectionately yours,
Elihu Burritt
