Elihu Burritt to "Dear Friend Lane"

Manchester [England]
March 5 [1857?]

Dear Friend Lane,

I see by the Peace Advocate that you have formed a juvenile Peace Society in Christchurch. Who is the secretary of it? I hope to procure you a correspondent by next Steamer. What say you to corresponding with the secretary of a local league in America? Rev. E.W. Jackson, Chelsea, Mass. U.S.A., is an earnest spirit. Will you write him? I am glad to see you are moving so energetically. Cannot some of you drop a word for ocean Penny Postage dash off a paragraph on the subject? We must get up a League circle in every town in the Kingdom. Cannot you canvas for the right spirits in towns surrounding you, who will act as secretaries?

Ever yours,

Elihu Burritt
