Mssrs. Fowler and Wells

Gent.

I am about starting a small weekly paper in this village, half the size of yours, and should be greatly obliged to you, if you would kindly drop me a line to say where you get your paper, or the address of the house that supplies it. If you would not mind it, I should be glad if you would just state the price per ream they charge you for it. But this I can ascertain from them. I shall feel much indebted, if you will give me the address of the firm.

Yours Truly,

Elihu Burritt
