Elihu Burritt to Alderman Mechi

New Britain, Conn.
May 6/74

Alderman Mechi

My Dear Sir:

I beg to introduce and commend to your courteous consideration, the bearer of this note, William H. Miller Esq., a gentleman deeply interested in agriculture, and owning a large farm near Philadelphia. Like all reading agriculturalists in America, he has heard much of your system and success and would be greatly pleased to meet you and see your celebrated Tiptree farm. Any attentions you may show him will equally oblige

Yours Very Respectfully,

Elihu Burritt

With envelope addressed:
Alderman Mechi
Leadenhall Street
London

In lower right hand corner:
To introduce W.H. Miller Esq.
