

My dear Mr. Bennett.

I am delighted at the thought of seeing you; come at any time to - Winnipeg that may be most convenient to you, & be sure of a hearty English welcome.
I have been confined to my room for some days which will account for my not having seen the your lecture advertised; & I feel much disappointed that I am not well enough to get it. I should have been inclined to venture myself, but I know it would annoy my mother, so I must give it up. & look forward to the very great pleasure of seeing you to-morrow.

I remain, dear Mr. Bennett

Faithfully yours

Ellen Hopkins
