Clara Sturgis Johnson - efforts for the Seneca Indians - food
Freedom from Hunger - technical assistance.

Rev. Robert Johnson, Melbourne, Iowa - material on nuclear war.

Philip Johnson, Camden, Ohio - agreements and disagreements with FCNL policy. Do not seem to agree that the risk of a Communist world is horrible beyond imagining - that the root cause of the cold war must be laid at the door of Communist ideology, strategy and tactics. Don't agree on the U-2 incident - conciliation of evil dictators does not lead to peace. Cannot lament the fall of the Summit - don't agree on ways and means to relieve the tensions of the Cold War. Exchange of long letters between EPS & Philip Johnson.

Mrs. Omar Joyce, Minneapolis, Kansas - Mrs. Hazel Kaufman writes her regarding children's petition for peace. Mrs. Joyce has been a very active worker for peace in her community and in the Methodist Church.

K - Jack Kavanaugh from Charles Harker re question of tax exemption for contributions for FCNL from Moorestown Monthly Meeting. He quotes the Public Law 591 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

& non-governmental organizations. ERW reply. Kenderline sends copy of material in the Troop Information Program of the Army on treatment of information which he wrote.

Howard E. Kershner - believes that FCNL except for reducing military expenditures, would be for more government power and increase of expenditures all along the line. "FCNL unquestionably advocates a program of more socialization." Also previous correspondence.

J.A. Morris Kimber - sends a check for $125 to the treasurer of the First Friends Church for the FCNL & FCL. Objects to the use of Herblock cartoons in the Newsletter until he apologizes to Richard Nixon.

Cleveland Harris, Legislative Director, Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign-Born asks if PCNL has a position on H.R. 6208 to amend the Walter McCarren Act to provide for a Statute of Limitation on de-naturalization. Its absence violates basic constitutional guarantees.

Mrs. Berndt Lund, Smestad, Norway - proposal for a "peace brigade."

Lee H. Lybarger, Cleveland, EPS writes asking whether letters to Congress have any effect. EPS sends thoughtful reply, "At least one member of Congress has a formula that if he receives one letter on a subject at least 50 more people back home must be thinking the same thing but haven't taken the trouble to write. . . Those who do nothing are not actually neutral. They are in reality supporting whatever path the Congress happens to be taking whether they agree with it or not. This also accounts for the fact that most letters are written in opposition to something. When we agree with something we seldom write about it." May 2, 1961.

Samuel R. Levering (Policy Chairman)

Charles Harker - welcome home from New Delhi & expect to hear from you at annual meeting. List of problems for the Administrative Committee.
