

Box 74 cont

1965 FCNL Correspondence

Prudence R. Meter, New Orleans sends copy of letter to the editor against the Vietnam war.

Olga Myers, Honolulu, inquires if her Congressman gets the newsletter. Judy Starbuck writes that all Congressmen get it.

Norman Morrison - Immolation, November 2, 1965

Memorial Service, November 21, 1965, Friends Meeting House, Washington, D.C. "It takes a high order of patriotism to make a man willing to die for his country. But it takes an even higher order of patriotism to make a man willing to die if need be to make his country right when his country is wrong." Comments by E. Raymond Wilson, John Roemer, Henry J. Cadbury, Lawrence Scott, Marie Klooz, Norman J. Whitney.

Reprint from the Baltimore Evening Sun, Norman Morrison's last letter.

Statement by Friends Peace Committee.

Clippings.

Pacifist who set himself afire at the UN Dies - Nov. 10 - Roger A. LaPorte, 27.

Viet Cong Praise Human Torch

WTOP editorial and Raymond Wilson reply.

N -

Box
75

Prof. Philip Nagley, Friends University, Wichita, Kansas from Pat Moles - schedule for Friends University seminar.

Kimi Nanokawa from ERW - acknowledgement of letter from Toyama Monthly Meeting concerned about the Vietnam war.

Nerma C. Neale, Audubon, New Jersey about China and the Vietnam war. ERW reply including National Council of Churches delegation interview with McGeorge Bundy in the White House on Food for Peace.

Rev. Carl J. Nelson, Eugene, Oregon, former Marine of six years service in World War II writes to President and every member of Congress, "I am nauseated, morally sickened, and my conscience cries out." ERW reply.

Janet N. Neuman thanks EFS for letter in the Washington Post, Oct. 21.

William L. Neumann, Goucher College praises visit of Rev. Nishimura and Professor Iisaka - members of Japanese Christian delegation.

Mrs. Albert G. Newbold, Bechtelsville, Pa. wants copy of Congressional Directory; Charles Harker reply.

Richard Newby, Muncie, Indiana - after visit to Washington, "impressed with the work of the FCNL, and appreciate again the intensive efforts you are making." EFS reply, "it was a new departure in church legislative action on peace here."

Dave Newhall, Portland, Oregon - wants information on the military industrial complex. FN writes that Congressional Quarterly March 1961 had article on that subject.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

ERW asks Herschel Newson, Master, National Grange for interview on world hunger.

Ken Newton, Glendale, Arizona - re Negroes voting rights in elections.

New York Yearly Meeting Correspondence:

Correspondence re Nov. 9 FCNL meeting in New York City. Ross Flanagan and George Corwin want to raise an additional $11,000 for rebuilding churches destroyed in the Deep South.

Howard Cary, chairman Steering Committee, Peace Action Institute, New York Yearly Meeting and George B. Corwin, chairman of the Conference, write to Pope Paul VI about the Pope's concern for the poor in India.

Same writers to President Johnson re poverty, family planning and urge appointment of a "Committee to study the problems of expanding population at home and abroad and then convene a White House Conference on Population.

George Willoughby writes about the Upland Institute - New training center in social change and conflict management.

Henry E. Niles asks for list of 2 treaties Russians have generally kept. T. Proctor Lippincott answers and says about 267 offices were visited during the intensive AFSC-FCNL visitation on Vietnam.

Philip Noel Baker, M.P., London - correspondence with ERW on Vietnam, the Dominican Republic invasion. "One of the disappointments has been relatively little public criticism of the Vietnam policy in the Churches." PNB writes the London Times, "disaster for the President and the world. . .because he took advice that peace could be obtained by ruthless use of military power. This advice has proved completely wrong." Sends House of Commons speech on the Dominican Republic 10 May 1965. ERW "by vigils, by teach-ins, by conferences by dinner meetings, by petitions, by conversations, we have tried to keep up our efforts on the Vietnam question." Summary of activities.

1965 FONL Correspondence

National Civil Liberties Clearing House.

Minutes.

Report of the Sixteenth Annual National Civil Liberties Clearing House on the Civil Rights Bill and Beyond; Liberty and Equality under the Constitution; The Lessons of Dallas Threats to Fair Trial and Free Press; Direct Action; An Appraisal of the Strategies of Protest.

National (First Word of Organization)

National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice Conference, April 26-29.

National Broadcasting Company to EFS on the President's attitude toward a manned-orbital-laboratory.

National Committee on International Development. Thanks for proposals for International Cooperation Year.

National Conference on Citizenship. Conference on the Citizen and Law Observance in a Democracy.

International Development Conference.

National Conference on South African Crisis and American Action Program, March 21-23.

National Conference of Friends on Race Relations, June 18-21.

National Communications Associates.

National Council on Agricultural Life and Labor - First Annual Seminar, May 25.

National Education Association. Richard Kenman to ERW "I am sure you will be making important contributions to the cause of peace and fellowship as long as you have breath in you. More power to you!"

National Interreligious Conference on Peace - Minutes, etc. Plans for Conference.

National Limestone Institute. Robert M. Koch, President. Correspondence with ERW on food for peace and population.

New Jersey Legislative Committee.

EFS to Edmund Goerke re organization, policy determination, scope of issues, staff, finances.

Mary Cushing Niles and Henry Niles.

FONL policy.

Charles Harker to HN re prize winning high school essay on "What Steps Should the United States Take Toward Insuring World Peace?"

Mary Cushing Niles asks Vice President Humphrey to be keynote speaker for a one day conference on peace sponsored by the Maryland Council of Churches, the Archdiocese of Baltimore and the Baltimore Board of EFS letter about the V.P. Rabbes.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

O-

Arthur W. Wright, Oberlin College - 450 students voted for a Student Council resolution on Vietnam stronger than the FCNL petition.

William V. O'Brien, Washington Consultant, Institute of World Policy, Georgetown University invites E F S to 25th Washington consultation. Conflicts with Quaker Leadership Seminar.

Denise O'Connor wants material on lobbying. Judy Starbuck reply - also on right wing groups. Wrote to Senators Javits and Kennedy on Vietnam. Mention's anti A O D A book, "Disarmament a Blue print for Surrender" by Kent and Phoebe Courtney "I agree with the many persons who appreciate the information in the News-letters and other publications. Kudos."

J. Odi - Uzzosh, Nigeria - wants to study in the U.S.
ERW reply.

Winslow Osborne, Concord, N.H. writes about defeat of Feldman bill in New Hampshire House of Representatives which would have barred communist speakers on State University campuses. Charles Harker letter re New England solicitation.

Ben Otten, Defiance, Ohio, wants information on the Central Intelligence Agency.

Janet R. Owens, Oberlin, Ohio - the McGovern Food for Peace Bill, "seems to me to be the most intelligent solution to the problem that I have seen." ERW reply.

Howard Ozmon, University of Virginia wants material for Vietnam teach in Oct. 21

P-

Leo Pach, Bronx, New York. Correspondence on petitions, vigils.

Leslie Paffrath - sends speech of Senator Claiborne Pell on the Pacem in Terris Conference, and asks cooperation for the International Convocation at the New York Hilton, Feb. 18-20, 1965.

Mrs. Kirby (Alma) Page writes about Department of Peace.
ERW reply.

Levinus K. Painter - came to Washington for interviews on the Congo. Talked to 100 Rotarians in Kenmore, suburban Buffalo.

Pat Parkman - letter to President Johnson about tax refusal. Sends tax not withheld in 1964 to FCNL. Pacifists need a new "realpolitik" alternative to the war in Vietnam that gets to the people there.

Mrs. L.L. Parrish, Storrs, Connecticut - disturbed about arms sales. EFS reply - write to McGeorge Bundy and Senator Dodd.

David Parrott, Jr. Chm. Peace Committee, Minneapolis Friends Meeting wants speaker from FCNL.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

P- continued.

G. Nicholas Paster, director Antioch Education abroad sends 3 copies of recent teach in. One goes to legislative assistant to Senator Douglass and the other to legislative assistant to Senator Cooper.

Hermann G. Patt, Grenville, Mass. suggests that President Johnson or Vice President Humphrey be approached at the March on Washington on Easter Saturday about the Melsong River Development.

Betty Pattison, Wilmington, Delaware, preparing to interview Senator Williams about foreign affairs.

James G. Patton, President, Farmers Union invites ERW to meeting and luncheon on food for Peace, Oct.19.

Hannah Newcombe, Peace Research Abstracts, Ontario. Journal and Abstracts to FCNL at reduced rate.

Paul Peachey, The Church Peace Mission, wants article for Mennonite Life.

Mrs. Gerald O. Pecet writes very critical letter about Southeast Asia FCNL policy. "The record of every agreement, and we have gone far out of our national interest to appease and concede though never reciprocated, has only given strength to the enemy... Did God believe he could co-exist with Lucifer?... For intelligent people like yourselves to believe in the rightness of a negotiated settlement with communist mentality is naive indeed."

Penn Valley Friends, Kansas City, Missouri, didn't get their action card and a petition calling for a negotiated settlement.

Mrs. Peggy Dehl, Pennsylvania Council to Abolish the Death Penalty sends summary of progress. ERW reply.

Pendle Hill. Ray Hartsough planning weekend with George Gorman, Oct.22-24.

John Perera from Matt Thomson - we have now expanded our armed forces in Vietnam to 45,000. writes about Congressman Devine and Senator Young.

Maria Peters, Southampton, Pennsylvania, asks about Fred J. Cook's book, "The Warfare State."

Martha Peterson, Alpine, New York - Dulton Peterson's death. ERW letter - on FCNL payroll, Dec.1, 1967 to May 28, 1948. "He was a churchman very much dedicated to the attempt to apply religious principles and religious faith to the responsibilities of government. We especially appreciated the fine work he did for the FCNL over the years in opposing universal military training and in working for peace."

1965 FCNL Correspondence

P - continued

Mrs. Sophia Peterson, Oxford, Ohio thanks EFS for interview on disarmament for dissertation.

Paul G. Phillips, Lincoln, Virginia encourages support for Senator Fulbright's opposition to the Dominican intervention

Mahlon Hagerty, Phoenix, Arizona sends copy of night letter to President Johnson, Sept. 12, 1965. "Phoenix Friends Meeting strongly opposes bombing of hydroelectric plants and dams in Vietnam. We urge cease fire in Vietnam and working through our United Nations to bring the Vietnam war to an early and honorable end."

Lilly Pickett, Haverford - thanks for FCNL minute on the death of Clarence Pickett. "The concerns of the FCNL were close to his heart and he always followed them with keen interest."

Joe Platt, Media, Penna. - recommends Progressive article, "Out of the Trenches by Christmas." Have a clear cut issue to vote on and ... committed to stand for it." ERW - keep up the flow of good ideas to us.

Political Action Institute on Crisis - Vietnam and Southeast Asia, Hotel Fort Des Moines, May 22, 1965. Senators Ernest Gruening, Jack Miller, and U.S. Representative John Hansen.

Ruth H. Pool, Seattle calls for Congressional review of Foreign Policy.

Victor W. Perlier, Washington, D.C. asks about FCNL activities for Indians.

John P. Powelson, economist, University of Pittsburgh, Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, "Willing to be called upon to serve FCNL in any way I can."

Richard T. Lane writes to President of Swiss Confederation about Alfredo Corradetti, that he might have alternative service as a conscientious objector. EFS relates conversation with a Swiss Embassy official who desires more information about Quakers, etc.

Helen Price - clipping from the Arizona Republic.

Providence, R.I. Monthly Meeting - re correspondence with the President, Senators and some Congressman about Vietnam.

Pax - Massachusetts

Torture pamphlet on Vietnam published.

Peace Information Center

South Jersey, Moorestown.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

Institute for Policy Studies.

Washington Post story, started by Richard J. Barnet and Marcus Raskin.

Policy

Proposed 1966 budget, $115,056.

James Read wants more attention to strengthening the U.N. including efforts to bring the U.N. into Vietnam situation, and U.N. conventions.

Margaret Jones - priorities - China, Vietnam, food for Peace.

EFS suggestions for Legislative Priorities in 1966

Elton Atwater - Vietnam should be priority of no.1

Emile Benoit - Food for Peace combines with population control.

Illinois-Wisconsin proposed statement on Legislative Policy Post Office Department.

Handling and delivery of FCNL mail.

Notice to Postmaster on People's Korea and requests that it be sent - (Post Office holding up mail from Communist Countries)

EFS letter, March 30, about "The Peoples Korea". "We are under no illusions as to the views of those who disseminate this material. But in a divided world where weapons of mass destruction are so prevalent and the need for peace is so great, we do not believe we serve either our Quaker constituency or our country by cutting ourselves off from an opportunity to learn how those whose views we do not share look at the problems which divide the world."

Public Relations - kept in FCNL office file.

Quaker Life - Correspondence and articles.

Ken Harvey accepts appointment to Administrative Committee.

John Birch Society protests "If Flowers Behaved Like Human Beings" in June issue.

Report on Legislative Seminar and Annual FCNL Meeting.

Quaker U.N. Program

Reg Engelberg, Altadena, California from Robert H. Cory, Jr. re control of export of conventional weapons.

Bob Cory to Mike Yarrow - notes for U N A article on Chinese representation.

Delegation including Edward F. Snyder and Frances Neely and Charles Harker to see James Roosevelt U.S. Mission to the U.N. Nov.5.

Correspondence on Possible National Committee on China

Bob Cory to Herberto Sein and Sydney Bailey re denuclearized zones, disarmament discussions.

Bob Cory and ERW on the Still Plan. Report on interview with Harold Cooley, chairman House Agriculture Committee on food for peace.

BO comments on EFS draft of article on foreign aid. Concerned on the population explosion.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

Quaker U.N. Program - continued

Eugene Boardman to BO - thanks for hospitality and skillful scheduling of time.

BO to ERW - appalling impression that Freedom from Hunger Foundation has been almost a complete failure and White House Committee on food and agriculture very disappointing. No plans for FAO anniversary campaign.

William Huntington to EFS - glad to see Rep Widnall's remarks in the Congressional Record of July 1, proposing "an international commission to study the necessary revision of the United Nations." Rep. Widnall attended an AFSC parliamentary conference in Switzerland once.

Frances Neely to BO - outlook in Congress on U.N. appropriations for UNWRA.

T. Proctor Lippincott asks for Security Council verbatim records on the Dominican Republic.

William Huntington to Senator Frank Church - Congratulations to church and colleagues on Sen.Con.Res number 36 on international peace-keeping machinery. Disappointed by President's San Francisco speech.

Richard Smith from Bob Cory - re Luncheon of the American Immigration Conference - need for immigration reform legislation.

May June issue of INTER-COM, Religion and World Affairs - two pages on QUNP, two on the AFSC China program, two on AFSC peace education, two on FCNL, and a brief comment on the Washington seminars for students.

EFS to WRH - report on interview with Sen Church.

RHO to Duncan Wood - on the International Cooperation year.

William R. Huntington testimony on behalf of AFSC and FCNL on Senate Concurrent Resolution 32 on Planning for Peace.

BO to Burns Chalmers - chief Adebo, Ambassador to the U.N. from Nigeria wants to meet informally with Congressman.

BO to EFS - southeast Asia Development Diplomacy.

Heinrich Carstens and Margaret S. Gibbins from WH - Development of Melsong River basin held up by Vietnam War.

BO to EFS - Melsong River next steps.

Invitation to submit proposals for White House Conference on International Cooperation year.

BO to EFS - meeting with high State Department official, March 23 on U.S. policy on negotiation. Independence of South Vietnam not negotiable. State Department briefing.

BO to EFS - FCNL background paper on Vietnam and U.N. Ratification of U.N. Human Right Conventions.

1965 FONL Correspondence

Q U N P - Minutes

R -

William Rahill - regrets ERW not at his wedding. Has written two books. ERW reply "yesterday Tarlt Bell, Edward Snyder, Frances Neely and I delivered 1800 signatures on a petition to President Johnson... The petition strongly urged a cease fire and negotiation."

J.R. Ramsay resigns from FONL General Committee. "I have read carefully the 1963-1964 Statement of Legislative Policy and it has verified my previous opinion that I am firmly opposed to many of the positions ... Thanks for your patience but I prefer to resign from the committee."

Oarrell Randall - "Congratulations to you and your staff for another great issue of FONL Washington Newsletter (December, 1964) asks for figures on C I A.

Albert G. Reva, Earlham College, asks "why people tend to behave indifferently toward their fellow man."

FN to International Committee of the Red Cross, Geneva - appreciate your appeal to help both sides in Vietnam war. Asks for information regarding Red Cross activities in both areas, the degree of destruction and human suffering that has resulted from the U.S. bombing of North Vietnam. Sends information on FONL and AFSC activities on Vietnam.

Curt Regen - inquires whether Wendy Williams, daughter of Sen. Harrison Williams, Jr. of New Jersey could get into Sandy Spring Friends School. Charles Harker reply.

Religious Leaders Conference on Peace - January 12-13-14- Protestant, Catholic and Jewish. Forerunner of the Conference in Washington in 1966 and the International Conference in Kyoto, October 1970.

Leona Richmond, Moorestown, New Jersey to ERW - Thanks for speaking to Women's Club. "You always have so much to give an audience, that I was pleased and proud to present you to them."

Father Peter J. Rega, Dept. of Theology, Notre Dame, Indiana. Excerpt of AFSC report on visit to Vietnam published in Ave Maria. "American public opinion has dramatically turned as support for that blasphemy called a war." Wants money for publication of Catholic statement in New York Times. Charles Harker reply.

Arthur Roberts, Seattle, Wash. asks about support of cease fire. Proctor Lippincott writes about Interreligions Committee on Vietnam, quotes U Thant and Edward Snyder.

Oliver Rodgers, Wallingford, Penna - son visiting Washington graduates this year from Brown.

Edward F. Rogers, Middletown, N.J. asks for information on immigration legislation.

Ada Rose, Haverford, Penna. - thanks for copy of ERW letter to Vice President Humphrey.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

R - Continued

Evelyn Ross, Miami, Florida sends copy of Resolution for Joint Congressional Control if the C I A submitted by the Social Issues Committee, First Unitarian Church, Miami.

Beatrice Russell, Phoenix, Arizona. Protests war in Vietnam in letter to President. As registered Republican "can recall no president who has done as much to advance progress as you are doing!" ERW letter deals with efforts on food for peace.

Ralph Rudd, Cleveland, commends Rep. Bradford Custis on his speeches on the military manpower situation. Asks about material on constitutionality of conscription. EFS reply.

Robert Rushmore, Roslyn Heights, New York - letter of appreciation to Edward Snyder for talk at covered dish supper. "The meeting appreciated your time and effort that went to make the evening a happy occasion."

Walter H. Russell, Bishop, Texas. "I have seen each day the hideous growing unconcern of people for other people." Previous letter about demonstrations. "The war in Vietnam is not improving us in the physical sense nor in the eyes of other nations." EFS sends Statement of Policy.

William D. Russell, Committee on Social Concerns; Kansas District of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints asks for information on FCNL.

Treaties - Genocide, etc., Correspondence concerning

Minutes as Hoc Committee on Human Rights and Genocide Treaties.

Joan Clippinger, American for Reappraisal of Far Eastern Policy, New Haven to FN.

Proposed Agenda, Conference of National Organization on Vietnam and the United Nations, Oct. 14, 1965, Washington, D.C.

National Conference on the Human Rights and Genocide Treaties in March in Washington, D.C. urged President to establish a Commission on Genocide and Human Rights.

EFS to Martin B. Devorkis - "The proponents of a measure ought to state the desirable policy as they see it and argue for it with conviction, letting the compromise be made in the Congress rather than before the whole process begins.

Copy of letter sent the President Dec. 16, 1964 in behalf of 31 organizations including the AFSC and the FCNL.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

James Read, President, Wilmington College

ERW letter in behalf of Nigerian Student.

J H - Norman Morrison memorial service poorly attended.

Mariam Wilson not quite so well.

George McGovern - letter about economic and military assistance and food for peace. Supplementary letter from Judy Starbuck.

J.H. - letter going to Senate and House Judiciary Committees with reprint of J R's article in the Friends Journal for July 1, "How to Win Friends for the USA.

J R - member of delegation that spent half hour with the President in the Cabinet Room on immigration reform on June 16.

Raymond F. Farrell, Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization Service sends J R a letter of appreciation for his letter.

Felix Schnyder, U N High Commissioner for Refugees writes J R "I have read with great interest your excellent and inspiring statement" for the AFSG on refugees and immigration.

Robert Murphy invites J R to join the National Committee for Immigration Reform. Statement of purpose.

J R from ERW - letter about work in the churches-April 17. demonstrations. Ed. Snyder working on inter-faith visitation.

Reprints, Requests for Sa-So.

Albert Sachs, student at Columbia College, New York has chosen the FCNL as the organization for a term paper on interest Groups operating in the United States.

Greater St. Louis Committee for Nuclear Information invites distribution of their materials on civil defense and other nuclear questions.

Santa Barbara Monthly Meeting, Charles W. Cooper, Clerk sends minute of approval for Stuart Innerst's return to Washington. "Underscore the confidence so many of us have in Stuart Innerst and his ability to represent Friends in the expression of their peace concerns."

Julia L. Sarles, Rye, N.Y. - "What is the most effective method to be used by a church group, of trying to end war?"

Nancy Sather, Hindman, Kentucky - interested in Vietnam, China and voting records.

Mrs. Gertrude Saylan, Los Angeles wants religious leaders statement on conscription for delivery to the President.

Proctor Lippincott to Jim Saylor, N.Y. Times - asks for profile on the Dominican Provisional President.

John Moorman, Scattergood School, West Branch, Iowa thanks to EFS for briefing their seminar.

1965 FCNL Correspondence

Sa - So - continued

James H. Schneider, Evangelical United Brethern, Paynesville, Minnesota wants 70 copies of summary sheet on Vietnam.

August Schoetl, San Diego, California, sends copies of telegram to President Johnson about lack of freedom of American people to decide U.S. policy in Vietnam, Dominican Republic, Pentagon and CIA policies. Memo to U Thant, "The U.S. military Frankenstein monster on rampage." Letter to President Johnson about the Vietnam war.

Earle S. Scott, Associate Professor of Chemistry, Ryson College wants material on food and population. ERW reply.

Leon Shapiro sends copy of editorial on Vietnam from the St. Louis Post Dispatch. If citizens "will make their opposition to escalation of the war overwhelming and unremitting, they can create a body of public opinion that cannot be ignored by any President... The latent Gallup Poll shows at least 54 per cent of the people oppose the war in one degree or another."

Invitation by Carol Shedlovsky to Charles Hacker to speak to the Boulder Friends Meeting, July 19.

Vote on the Dirksen amendment, S.J. Res 66 to J. Sherman, Los Angeles.

Judy Starbuck responds to inquiry by Eldon Singleton, Morocco Indiana for information on the nuclear arms race.

John Silard suggests to Harry Schwartz in Sen. Clark's office a monthly meeting of peace representatives.

Mrs. J. B. Simpson, Kings Mountain, N. C. wants material on right wing extremist groups.

J. Kennedy Sinclair, Montclair, New Jersey wants FCNL material on publicity, promotion and advertising.

Frederick Smedley - correspondence with ERW re Central Europe and critique of his proposals. problem of military conversion. James Wechsler interview with mythical senator. Letter to Senator Javits urging him to oppose our Vietnam policy.

Prof. Barchwell L. Smith, Chairman Asian Studies Dept, Carleton College, Northfield, Minn. - from Eugene Boardman, Friend in Washington, re speaking engagement there on "A new Look at Our China Policy."

Edgar Laurence Smith, Drexel Hill, Penna. - war on poverty if conducted with deficit or depreciating dollars cannot be won. EFS reply.

1965 FOCL Correspondence

Sa - So - continued

Dr. Joseph Smolik, Christian Peace Conference, Prague, wants exchange with FOCL.

Margaret Snyder, New Delhi, India. Letter to Pres. Johnson, to the editor of Friends Journal - holding the president in prayer - correspondence with Gretchin Tuthill. La Jolla Meeting has invited Friends to come at 9:30 a.m. Sunday mornings for prayer on the U.S. involvement in Vietnam. Gretcham Tuthill letter to Toyama Monthly Meeting and to Heinrich Carstens, Chairman Friends World Committee, European Section.

Edith Reeves Solenberger - planning to come to Washington
Guy Solt, Lansdowne, Pa. to ERS. "Right now, the Vietnam situation is just where it has been since Pres. Johnson made up his mind on the matter... Pres. Johnson is a different kind of a President than you or I have seen in the White House. His course will not be affected in ways that have influenced other Presidents". Peace Committee sending out monthly letters to members... Letters and literature sent out by organizations are so completely propaganda - ERW letter on peace organizations.

Philip D. Fagans, Clerk, Somerset Hills Monthly Meeting, Bernardsville, N.J. - urges support for appointment of a Presidential Commission on Population. ERW writes that President has done this.

So through S--

Box
76

EFS letter to Theodore Sorenson re Quaker visit to President Kennedy.

National Conference - South African Crisis and American Action March 21-23, Washington.

Concern on Vietnam of members of Southampton Monthly Meeting of Friends - specifically, halt the bombing of North Vietnam, include NLF in our openness for unconditional discussions.

Fanny Southgate, Winter Park, Florida - vivid account of her activities in Florida. Harold Bosley conference in Orlando. EFS appreciative letter for help at FOCL and in Florida.

Kenneth E. Southwood, Ann Arbor - letter to British Prime Minister Wilson re present situation in Vietnam. He lived in Malaysia during most of the Emergency there. "I hope you are trying to impress on the American government the distinct possibility that its actions are in grave error, both as to the virtues of the situation it is trying to protect and as to the likelihood of success."