Enjoy an optional cable car ride that showcases the skyline of the growing “green city” of Almere and the breathtaking venues of Floriade Park.

THE NETHERLANDS

A vibrant university town layered with history, attractive Nijmegen was originally settled by the Romans in the first century B.C. Discover an impressive array of pristinely preserved buildings, including the turreted 15th-century town hall and the 17th-century, Renaissance-style De Waagh. Overlooking the River Waal, Valkhof Hill features the captivating Barbarossa Ruins and ninth-century Carolingian chapel.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:

Meet and engage with locals during the specially arranged RIVER LIFE® FORUM.

Kinderdijk

Designated a national monument and a UNESCO World Heritage site, Kinderdijk is home to Holland’s greatest concentration of old windmills. Here, little has changed since the mid-18th century, when 19 wooden windmills were erected side by side to drain the Alblasserwaard, one of many regions in the Netherlands below sea level. Though no longer used to monitor water levels, the windmills are still one of Holland’s most picturesque sights and represent exceptional examples of the achievements of 18th-century Dutch engineering.

Amsterdam's bridges and canals bring the intimacy of a small town to one of Europe's most celebrated cities.

The lively, medieval Market Square is the principal city square and gathering point in Bruges.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:

Proceed to the chapel to see the Van Eyck brothers' magnificent altarpiece Adoration of the Mystic Lamb—this polyptych is the most frequently stolen artwork of all time; in fact, one panel is still missing.

Bruges

Built around a double ring of charming canals connected by arched footbridges and renowned for its handcrafted chocolates, fairy-tale Bruges is a UNESCO World Heritage site of virtually untouched medieval architecture, including landmark Belfry of Belgium. Enjoy a walking tour from the Market Square to the magnificent Gothic-style Chapel of the Holy Blood to see the richly decorated stone guildhalls and opulent churches.
