A Long Weekend Escape to Reykjavik
March 14th - 18th 2019

From steamy hot springs to top-notch spas, splendid scenery to art museums, this unique land is the perfect place to relax, recharge, and explore. Legends say that the ancient gods themselves guided Iceland’s first settler, Ingolfur Arnarson, to make his home in Reykjavik (“Smoky Bay”), named after the geothermal steam he saw. Today this geothermal energy heats homes and outdoor swimming pools throughout the city – a pollution-free energy source that leaves the air outstandingly fresh, clean and clear.

Dine on Icelandic specialties, including delicious seafood, ocean-fresh from the morning’s catch; highland lamb; and unusual varieties of game. It’s purely natural food imaginatively served to delight the most discerning of diners. Reykjavik is also renowned as one of Europe’s hottest nightspots, where the action on the friendly pub and club scene lasts right through the long winter nights.

But perhaps the greatest draw is the Aurora Borealis – the Northern Lights. This is the best time of year to see them because it has to be totally dark to get the best effect – and this is a country where the sun never sets in the summer! On our arrival day, a local expert will give us a presentation on the aurora and then that evening we’ll head out to try and see the real thing (weather permitting). If we don’t succeed we’ll try again the next night . . and the next.

Take advantage also of optional tours for both traditional and offbeat attractions – including elf-spotting tours, Viking feasts, whale watching, horseback riding, lava fields, and a variety of sports and leisure activities. This adventure offers the best of a guided tour plus time to explore on your own.

Visit Iceland with fellow Swarthmore Alumni and indulge in the wonder of this epic island.

Thursday, March 14
Evening departure from your chosen gateway city, where you board your direct Iceland Air service to Iceland.

Friday, March 15
Early morning arrival in Iceland; you will be met at the airport and escorted to your hotel in Reykjavik, where a sumptuous breakfast buffet awaits us. At approximately 10.30 am this morning you tour Reykjavik for a wonderful introduction to Europe’s smallest capital city! The tour covers the Old Town, the shopping districts, the Parliament, Hofdi House, Hallgrim’s church, the Harpa concert hall and much more! Most hotels know that Americans arrive early and will do everything possible to help us check in upon arrival. However, this may not always be possible and if the rooms are not ready, you will store your luggage and go off on your city tour. When you return to the hotel you will be free for lunch, and then able to go to your rooms and take a short nap before you gather for your introductory lecture. Dinner will be at the hotel and this evening you will embark upon our first attempt to view the Northern Lights. (B, D)

Saturday, March 16
Today you capture the essence of Iceland. Your first stop is Þingvellir National Park, site of the world’s first parliament. Here you can walk from America to Europe! You continue along on the South Coast tour to see majestic waterfalls and gaze upon black sand beaches. You stop for lunch (included) and then drive to the important religious center at Skalholt. You’ll also stop to peer into the icy depths of Keri volcanic crater before arriving at the renowned Fjörubordid restaurant in the village of Stokkseyri, where you’ll enjoy a traditional Icelandic lobster feast (more like Langoustine than Maine lobster). Your return to your hotel in Reykjavik after dinner. (B, L, D)

Sunday, March 17
A free day. Explore the galleries and museums of the city, enjoy the tax-free shopping or pamper yourself in one of the many local spas. There will also be a variety of optional activities available; from taking a snowmobile safari to the top of a glacier, to riding an Icelandic pony or going in search of Whales. Your tour guide will also be offering an optional south coast excursion today and details on other available day tours will be provided before departure. (B)

Monday, March 18
Today you take a drive down the exotic, moonlike Reykjanes peninsula, first stopping at Bessastadir, the official estate for Iceland’s President. Arriving around 10.00 am you bathe in the famous Blue Lagoon, an azure pool of mineral-rich warm water amid a lava field. There are wonderful facilities to shower and change at the site before you continue to the airport for your return flights to the US. (B)

Key to included meals: B - breakfast, L - lunch, D - dinner
