Sampriti Ganguli '95

Sampriti Ganguli, Class of 1995, was an Economics/Political Science Double Major, with two concentrations in International Relations and Public Policy. After spending two decades in management consulting, advising companies to prepare their workforce for the "knowledge economy, she currently helps philanthropic donors create the greatest good with their resources as CEO of Arabella Advisors. As a former international student, I would like to see the college's sustained commitment to creating the broadest representation of diverse viewpoints, grounded in the pursuit of a liberal arts education that prepares students for today's socio-economic landscape.
