

Job Opportunities @ John Heinz National Wildlife Refuge

Learn how to support your community through local conservation work!

Local candidates are encouraged to apply today!

mobilize green
YOUTH. ACTION. IMPACT.

Environmental Education Intern

This position is designed to lead local environmental education programs for a variety of audiences, leading guided walks for public audiences or school groups, developing or revising lesson plans, designing flyers and providing social media content, and assisting in operation of a visitor center.

<https://mobilizegreen.bamboohr.com/careers/457>

Length: 40 Weeks (40 hrs/week)      Benefits: $650/week stipend + $1000/month housing stipend. Health insurance available

Invasive Species Intern

Primary duties will include invasive species management and biological monitoring. Duties may include wildlife surveys; working with volunteer groups; and educating the public. The Intern should be adaptable to all field conditions and driven to learn a wide range of biological tasks.

<https://mobilizegreen.bamboohr.com/careers/455>

Length: 12 Weeks (40 hrs/week)      Benefits: $550/week stipend + $500/month housing stipend + $50/month commuter stipend

Contact: garrett\_white@fws.gov

Lead Maintenance Intern

This intern will work on a variety of facilities, maintenance, habitat restoration, and transportation projects with USFSW John Heinz team to improve road/trail access to and from the refuge, improve building function, and improve the visitor experience and public safety.

<https://mobilizegreen.bamboohr.com/careers/456>

Length: 40 Weeks (40 hrs/week)      Benefits: $650/week stipend + $750/month housing stipend

Contact: mariana\_bergerson@fws.gov

@JohnHeinzNWR