The Hope Reichbach Memorial Fund

The Hope Reichbach Memorial Fund (Hope Fund) provides vital learning experiences and career development for underprivileged college students, inviting them into a network centered around Hope Reichbach's memory and values of active leadership and communal responsibility. The Fund was launched after Hope's passing in April 2011, and through this effort we, her family and friends, continue to grow Hope's legacy.

The Hope Fund provides stipends for students who to take traditionally unpaid internships in civic leadership and grassroots community organizing in the borough of Brooklyn.

Eligibility:

- Must be a full-time college student in his or her freshman or sophomore year.
- Must be in receipt of a significant amount of financial aid.
- Must be a resident of one of New York City's five boroughs (though may be attending college elsewhere).

The Hope Fund is proud to offer Grantees:

Compensation

Students are provided the opportunity to work in Brooklyn-based organizations in traditionally unpaid internships for $10/hour for full time work (35-40 hours/week) for ten weeks.

Vital Learning Opportunities

The internships provide students with hands-on experience of what it's like to push the boundaries, explore their talents, and influence social change.

A Strong Network and Community

The "circle of Hope" is comprised of Hope's family, friends, and colleagues. We're a diverse group who were brought together by one extraordinary person in life, and remain connected through our common goal of continuing her legacy.
