

National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity Institutional Membership

NCFDD Institutional Membership provides an external mentoring community designed to help graduate students, post-docs and faculty members increase research and writing productivity and improve work-life balance.

NCFDD membership offers relevant professional development training, intense and reliable support from highly trained and successful mentors, a confidential “safe space” for problem solving, and a downloadable virtual format so members can learn at their convenience.

Membership Benefits:

- Greater success with publications and securing external funding for research
- Increased confidence as an independent researcher
- Healthier relationships with departmental colleagues
- Increased interactions with campus-based and external mentors, sponsors and collaborators
- Increased job satisfaction

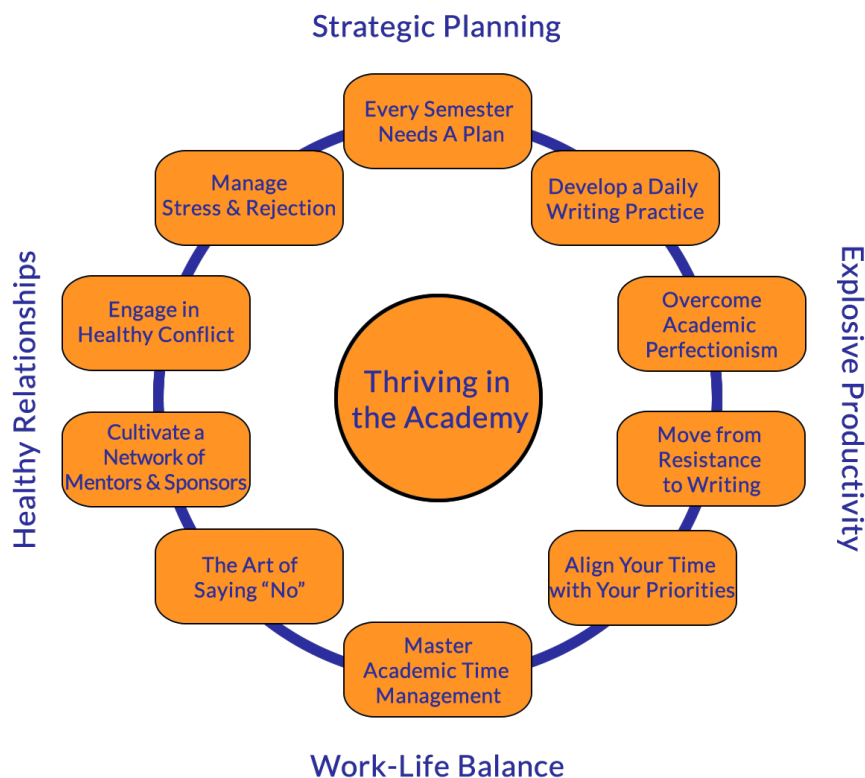

Did you know?

"The supportive community that the NCFDD provides has given many of our faculty new ways to organize their work so that they can both be productive and have time for families and friends. Balance is the term that comes to mind, but it is more than that."
