

Math/Stat Kickoff Lecture

SWARTHMORE COLLEGE DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS AND STATISTICS
COLLOQUIUM SERIES 2022-2023

Building a Mathematical and Statistical Community from the start of a Semester

Aris Winger

Georgia Gwinnett College

In this talk, we will talk about the energy of a new semester and how to harness its possibilities. We will discuss best practices in creating and sustaining communities in mathematics and statistics. Personal narratives will be given about how these strategies can be effective in catalyzing change in our academic and personal lives. Discussion will be interactive, lively, challenging, engaging and transformative.
