The Department of Public Safety’s mission and responsibility is to work in partnership with the Swarthmore College community to provide a safe and secure learning, living, and working environment. We endeavor to foster an atmosphere in which officers provide a prompt, professional presence and are aware of and responsive to the diverse community we serve while justly enforcing the rules and regulations of the College and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

About the Department of Public Safety (DPS)
DPS operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year and is fully committed to providing a safe and healthy campus for the entire community. Uniformed officers patrol buildings and grounds, respond to emergencies, educate the community about crime prevention, and provide individual safety escorts upon request. In addition to offering self-defense classes for students for P.E. credit, DPS regularly meets with resident advisers to discuss safety and crime-prevention issues. DPS is located in the Benjamin West House on Chester Road/Route 320 between College Avenue and the Swarthmore train station.

IMPORTANT PUBLIC SAFETY SERVICES

LiveSafe
LiveSafe is a new mobile safety app that allows you to report safety concerns to DPS, invite virtual companions to accompany you to your destination, place emergency calls, and access safety resources. We encourage you to get more information and learn how to download the free mobile app at LiveSafeMobile.com.

TransLoc Rider is an app that provides real-time tracking of campus shuttles. Learn more at swarthmore.edu/publicsafety.

Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) Basic Physical Defense Course for Women
RAD is a program of realistic self-defense tactics and techniques that begins with awareness, prevention, risk reduction, and avoidance, while progressing to the basics of hands-on defense training. This is not a martial-arts program. The class is open to students, faculty, and staff who identify as women. Students receive a P.E. credit for taking the course.

RAD for Men Physical Defense Course: Resisting Aggression with Defense
Participants have the opportunity to raise their awareness of aggressive behavior, recognize how aggressive behavior affects their lives, learn steps to avoid aggressive behavior, consider how they can be part of reducing aggression and violence, and practice hands-on self-defense skills to resist and escape aggressive behavior directed toward them. This program is designed to empower participants to make safer choices when confronted with aggressive behavior. The class is open to students, faculty, and staff who identify as men. Students receive a P.E. credit for taking the course.

Self-defense Awareness & Familiarization Exchange (SAFE) Training
SAFE is an educational awareness crime-victim prevention program that provides participants with information that may reduce their risk of exposure to violence, introduces them to physical self-defense, and educates about realistic options to help avoid, escape, or survive assaults. The training is open to students, faculty, and staff who identify as women.

Resources for Reporting Community Concerns, Crimes, and Emergencies
Public Safety works in partnership with the Swarthmore Borough Police Department to ensure the safety of the Swarthmore College community. Swarthmore College encourages reporting crime to the appropriate law enforcement agency—Public Safety officials will assist with reporting crimes to local police if requested by the victim. Swarthmore also respects the rights of victims to choose whether police are notified. If you wish to speak with a police officer, you may call Swarthmore Borough Police Department Emergency 911 or 610-543-0123.

What is the Clery Act? The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, signed in 1990, is the federal law that requires colleges and universities across the U.S. to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. To meet the letter and spirit of the law, Public Safety makes available no later than Oct. 1 each year the College’s Annual Fire Safety and Security Report, available online and as a hard copy to anyone who visits Benjamin West House and makes a request.

What is Title IX? Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded education program or activity. Sexual harassment, which includes sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination. Any student, employee, or applicant for employment or admission to the College who believes that he or she has been discriminated against on the basis of sex, in violation of Title IX, may file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator or any Deputy Coordinator. Additional information can be found at swarthmore.edu/share.
