Step 1. Swarthmore students wishing to take a class at The University of Pennsylvania through the Quaker Consortium must review UPENN's Quaker Consortium Student Guide. *Undergraduate students may only register for undergraduate level courses (course numbers 0001-4999)*

Step 2. Complete the Swarthmore Registration for Courses at UPENN form and submit to the Swarthmore College Registrar's Office.

Step 3. You will get an email from UPENN on the status of your registration; you must meticulously follow all of the instructions in that email, which sometimes contains many steps for you to do. Follow all the instructions in order to be fully registered for credit, including the Student Guide instructions for your PennCard and PennKey setup. Registration procedure is required to earn credit.

For specific questions on course enrollment, PennKey inquiries or account status, please visit https://srfs.upenn.edu/registrar and identify yourself as a Quaker Consortium student and your home institution in the email.

To drop or change the status in a course from the University of Pennsylvania, you must notify the Registrar's Office at Swarthmore College.

Caution: A UPENN Incomplete grade must be completed within the first 4 weeks of the next semester or the grade will automatically be converted to a grade of 'NC'.

UPENN does not permit Swarthmore students to register for any courses at the graduate or professional levels (course numbers 500 and above). Furthermore, Swarthmore students are not permitted to audit courses at UPENN. UPENN's College of Liberal and Professional Studies (LPS) can deny any proposed course a Swarthmore student wants to take. Swarthmore always respects the College of Liberal and Professional Studies Office's decisions as gatekeeper of UPENN courses. Swarthmore College limits registration to one course a semester.

Our application form requires that you obtain approval from both your academic advisor and the Swarthmore department under whose purview the course falls. Swarthmore registration is based on the course being one that is not available at Swarthmore, is relevant to the student's overall educational plan, and has been approved by the appropriate department here.

When differences occur between their regulations or calendar and ours, Swarthmore students are limited by the stricter rule, either UPENN's or Swarthmore's. Swarthmore students who take courses at UPENN do so under the rules concerning papers, Howing:

Housing:

If you are planning to register for a UPenn course with a start date before our courses, you need to be in contact with the Office of Student Engagement regarding the start date for those courses. Early housing will only be considered if UPenn's LPS has contacted the Swarthmore Registrar's Office with enrollment verification. Meals will not be included.
