Swarthmore Remote Work and Alternative Schedule Agreement

The following constitutes an agreement on the terms and conditions of working remotely between: Swarthmore College &___________, henceforth referred to as “the employee”.

Term
The Agreement is in effect from___________to___________. It may be extended beyond this period if agreed to by Swarthmore College and the employee. If extended, this agreement should be reviewed and modified as necessary.

Policies
The employee agrees to abide by all College policies and procedures, including Human Resources policies, information policies, and policies addressing the intellectual property rights of the College. The employee should be familiar with the following policies and guidelines:

- Remote Work and Alternative Schedule Policy
- Computers and Email Policy
- Intellectual Property Policy
- Safety and Health Policy

Requirements
If the employee will be working remotely from a home office, the employee and manager must complete the Remote Work and Alternative Schedule Safety Checklist to ensure that the home office meets the guidelines of the Remote Work and Alternative Schedule Policy. The employee may be asked to participate in studies, inquiries, and evaluations related to working remotely. In establishing a home office, the employee is responsible for compliance with local zoning regulations or rental agreements.

Work Location & Hours
The employee’s remote work location is:

The employee is approved to work remotely:
- Occasionally upon approval of manager – no regular remote work schedule
- On a regular remote work schedule

The employee is scheduled to work remotely on the following days:
- Monday
- Tuesday
- Wednesday
- Thursday
- Friday
- Saturday
- Sunday

The employee’s core hours on remote work days when they are available to manager and coworkers are:
Describe any additional or alternative work arrangement: ________________________________

An employee who works from a remote work site may be required to share office space. The employee is scheduled to work from the on-campus worksite (non-remote work) on:

☐ Monday  ☐ Tuesday  ☐ Wednesday  ☐ Thursday  ☐ Friday  ☐ Saturday  ☐ Sunday

The employee's core hours at the central worksite are: ________________________________

In the event the central office is closed due to weather or other emergency, the employee is to continue working from the remote work location until instructed otherwise by their manager.

Specific Job Tasks
If remote work is limited to specific tasks, projects, or types of work, describe them here.

Compensation & Benefits
Employee compensation and benefits, including vacation, sick leave, other forms of leave, and travel benefits shall not be affected by the remote work arrangement.

Hourly employees may not work overtime from the remote work location without prior approval from their manager. With such approval, overtime will be paid at the standard overtime rate. Without approval, overtime will not be paid overtime.

Employee is responsible for tax consequences related to remote work across state lines.

Communication
In order to maintain close communication and standards of professionalism while working from a remote location, the remote working employee shall:

- Notify manager, coworkers, and administrative coordinator of any change in the posted remote work schedule
- Be available to manager and coworkers by telephone and email during business hours
- Return calls and emails in a timely manner
- Fulfill required communication (such as daily contact) with manager
- Have office calls forwarded to the remote site.
- Answer the telephone professionally during business hours.

The remote work employee will agree with their manager on a plan for receiving assignments, returning assignments, and reporting to the manager on remote work days.

The employee will maintain contact with their work unit and colleagues, including attending meetings on remote work days when requested to do so by their manager.

Equipment & Expenses
The employee and manager shall determine the minimum equipment (including furniture) and software necessary for the employee to complete assignments from the remote location in a timely, efficient, and professional manner. In determining what equipment (if any) shall be provided by the College, the manager may consult other departments at the College as to appropriateness and availability. Any equipment provided by the College must be properly inventoried and listed in this agreement, and this agreement must be updated if equipment is returned or if new equipment is assigned. The employee is required to return any College property upon request. The College will maintain all equipment owned by the College.

The employee will not perform maintenance or repairs on College-owned equipment without prior approval. The employee is responsible for all maintenance and repairs of employee-owned equipment. The employee may install College-owned equipment or software upon approval. Without approval, the employee must schedule installation with the IT Department. Only College-owned software may be installed in College-owned equipment. The employee may not install or download any other software without approval. All software used for remote work, whether owned by the College or the employee, must be properly licensed by the software manufacturer. While employees may be allowed to use their own software, they will not be required to “purchase” software in order to work remotely. If new software is required for working remotely, it will be provided by the College.

The employee is responsible for ongoing operating costs such as telephone service fees, Internet fees, utility costs, homeowner’s or renter’s insurance, and furniture or equipment rental fees unless the College agrees in writing to pay for or reimburse such costs.

The College usually reimburses travel, and shipping expenses as per the standard employee expenses policy. The employee should never purchase or rent equipment, services, or supplies on the assumption that the College will reimburse the cost. Prior manager approval should be obtained.

Information Security

The employee working from a remote work location will follow all procedures outlined in the College’s data security policy. In addition, remote working employees must ensure the following:

- The protection of College data on USB, disk, in hardcopy, and on portable devices from theft, loss, or unauthorized access during transit and at the remote worksite.
- That approved firewalls and anti-virus software are on all remote-site computers and are updated daily with current definitions.

- That flash drives or other portable drives are scanned for viruses before being used for uploading or downloading data.
- That sensitive information in hardcopy form is returned to the office or shredded.
- That all work is backed up according to College procedures.
- That the College's network is accessed from the remote worksite or other locations only after prior approval and for approved purposes.
- That the employee agrees to follow the College's guidelines pertaining to the handling of public records.

Intellectual Property

Products, records, documents, inventions, and discoveries made while working remotely are the property of the College. The employee is expected to comply with the College's policies regarding inventions and copyrights regardless of the work location or whether work was performed on equipment owned by the College or the employee.

Safety

The employee confirms that they have a suitable place to work at the remote work location and that to the best of their knowledge the worksite is safe from conditions that could pose a hazard to health and safety or danger to equipment. The remote work location is considered an official College worksite for purposes of worker’s compensation. The employee must report any injury to their manager immediately. Worker’s compensation does not cover accidents to family members or other third parties at the remote work site.

Limitations

Remote workers must observe the following limitations when working from the remote work site:

- Employees cannot meet with clients at the remote work site.
- Employees cannot operate a business or work for another employer during work hours.
- Employees cannot use College equipment for personal use.
- Employees cannot allow others to use College equipment or to access the College network.
- Employees cannot have sole responsibility for providing dependent care during work hours except under special conditions approved by the manager.

Termination

The agreement is not a guarantee of employment and can be terminated at any time by either the College or the employee. A remote working arrangement may never be allowed to continue uninterrupted if it is detrimental to work quality, client service, the work unit, or the College. In such situations the manager will make a good faith effort to work with the employee to resolve the situation, but if the problem cannot be resolved, the manager has a responsibility to terminate the agreement. In the event of termination of the agreement, the employee will be notified and provided the reason(s) for the termination in writing. In the event this agreement is terminated, the manager will make every effort to provide sufficient notice to allow the employee to make appropriate dependent care or transportation arrangements. The College will not be held responsible for costs, damages, or losses to the employee resulting from termination of the agreement.

Agreement

This Agreement may be amended at any time by the College. A copy of this agreement and any addendums or amendments will be provided to the employee and placed in the employee’s personnel file.
